Dear Sir

Your favor of 26th ult.
in reference to coins received I am enclosing some drawings as you suggested and would appreciate your advice as to their value am not expecting to find they amount to much above the face value but would like to know if there is any among the lot of value
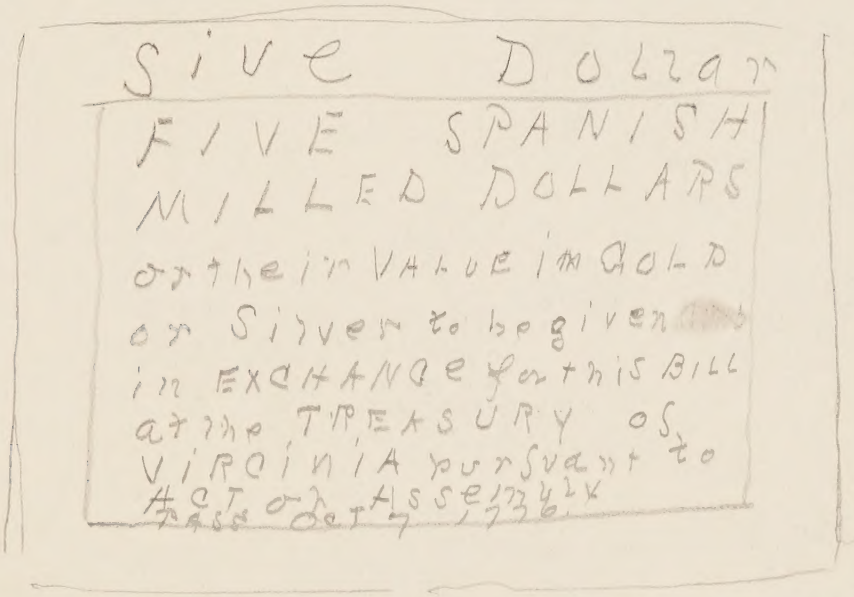
I have a paper note that

RUSH D. ROGERS
WEST MOORESTOWN
NEW JERSEY

appears to have been issued by the Treasury of Virginia on Oct. 7 1776 which reads as follows.



It is very much worn and is held together by linen thread sewed through the middle

Thanking you in advance for your kindness I am

Yours sincerely
R. D. Rogers

Dear Sir

None of the coins of which you show rubbing have a premium or at the most not more than 5 or 10¢. In other words, there is nothing rare among them. Your Virginia Treasury note is worth only a few cents, as it is not redeemable and in the very worn condition yours is in, it is not at all desirable.

Very truly yours,
